THE LAST TRAIN

E A E
It's raining hard as hell
E E7
But there's no water in my well
A A7
Irony lies all around
E A E
But as for me, I'm sorrow bound
B7 A
'Cause the last train out of town
Left fifty years ago

We lost the engine, we lost the track
And they ain't never coming back
All our kids moved away
And like the railroad, they've gone to stay
Yeah, the last train out of town

I should be leaving, I should go
But it's the only place I know
Where would I go, what I do?
That train's done gone, and so have you
The last train out of town
