

LIFE AFTER LOVE

D A G G
F Em A7

I passed your house the other day
They were taking all your things away
“Estate Sale Sunday Morning”
Read the sign

It had been a while since I'd seen
You walking to the Dairy Queen
For that icy solace
And some company

CHORUS

Louise, Louise
Now you're doing what you please
Floating on the clouds drifting by
Louise, Louise
Sailing on the breeze
Is there life after love, Louise?

When your faithless husband ran away
And left you all the bills to pay
You said, “One day
I'll be better off.”

Though he lived just south of town
Your no-good son never came around
“He's a pain in the ass anyway,”
You'd say

CHORUS

Louise, Louise
Now you're doing what you please
Floating on the clouds drifting by
Louise, Louise
Sailing on the breeze
Is there life after love, Louise?

BREAK (3/4)

Em G A7 C D G
Em ... G A7 C F A7 (sus)
You lived as a solitary woman
With secrets no one ever knew

Though you wished to share yourself with someone
In the end you took them all with you

Even cancer couldn't take you down
You just had to stick around
To bury all the assholes
In your life

But with every trip around the block
We saw you winding down the clock
And now the journey's done
Good-bye, Louise

CHORUS

Louise, Louise
Now you're doing what you please
Floating on the clouds drifting by
Louise, Louise
It's the end of agony
But is there love after life, Louise?
Is there love after life, Louise?
